

Fear in the Antarctic

SUPPORTED BY
MAYOR OF LONDON

Project co-financed by the European Integration Fund

Learning Objective

- To be able to use mental process verbs to describe how a character's feelings and thoughts
- To be able to express a character's dilemma and decide on an action using modal verbs.

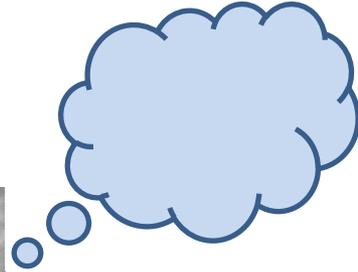

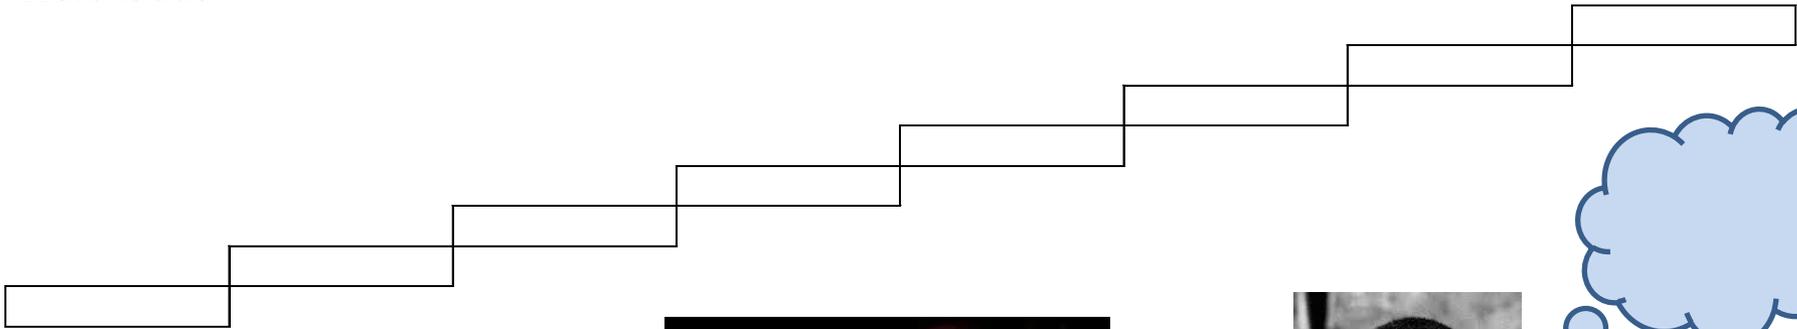

Word ladder

Describing Fear

Put the words in order on the staircase

terrified

frozen with fear

nervous

anxious afraid

heart in mouth

petrified

worried

SUPPORTED BY

MAYOR OF LONDON

Project co-financed by the European Integration Fund

The Penguin's Dilemma

The exhausted penguins slipped swiftly through the ice-hole down into the ocean. Bubbles popped around them while the southern lights danced in the sky. Quick as a flash, a grey spotted shape with long fangs swam up to the feeding birds. Moments later,

What is the Penguin Thinking and Feeling?

How did you feel when.....?

What were you hoping when.....?

What did you wonder when.....?

What were you wishing as.....?

Hot-seating

What is the Penguin Thinking and Feeling?

She felt...

she was going to

.....

She hoped that

She wondered ... if

She wished it.....

Hot-seating

SUPPORTED BY

MAYOR OF LONDON

Project co-financed by the European Integration Fund

What is the Penguin Thinking and Feeling?

The penguin swam through the.....

He saw a.....

He felt.....

He wondered if.

SUPPORTED BY

MAYOR OF LONDON

Project co-financed by the European Integration Fund

The Dilemma

She must

She should.....

She could.....but
.....

What can she do?

Where do these fit on the sorting chart?

What can the penguin do?

Can you add any more statements?

	1. Could (This might help her.)	2. Should (this would help her.)	2. Must (this is essential if she is to live.)
tickle the seal
dive under a rock
ignore the seal
swim away quickly

hide behind a rock

escape from the seal

swim closer to the seal

bite the seal with her beak

SUPPORTED BY

MAYOR OF LONDON

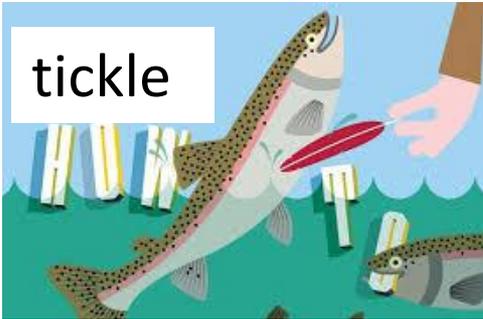

Project co-financed by the European Integration Fund

Sort from Most to Least Important

?

?

tickle

bite

ignore

She could call to the seal.

She could dive behind a rock.

She could ignore the seal.

She should swim away quickly.

She could bite the seal with her beak.

She could swim closer to the seal.

She must escape from the seal.

hide

dive

SUPPORTED BY

MAYOR OF LONDON

Project co-financed by the European Integration Fund

What should the Penguin do?

The penguin must.....

so she.....

She should......so.....

.....

She could.....but.....

.....

The Penguin's Dilemma – Vanishing Cloze

The penguin swam through the cold, clear water. He saw a grey shape in front of him. Heart in his mouth, he wondered what to do. He thought he could hide under a rock or bite the seal. He knew he must escape as quickly as possible or he would die. He decided to

The Penguin's Dilemma – Vanishing Cloze

The penguinthrough the cold, clear water. Hea grey shape in front of him. Heart in his mouth, hewhat to do. He thought he could hide under a rock or bite the seal. He knew he must escape as quickly as possible or he would die.

The Penguin's Dilemma – Vanishing Cloze

The penguinthrough the cold, clear water.
Hea grey shape in front of him. Heart in his mouth, hewhat to do. Hehe
..... under a rock or bite the seal.
He he..... escape as quickly as possible or he die. He decided to.....